

ington, in which it is stated that "the Democrats are considering the possibility of carrying Illinois next year, and the candidate they talk of in this connection is David Davis." The dispatch further says "this feeling is growing, particularly in view of the threatening action of the New York Legislature in regard to the electoral vote of that State."

This means that if the Maine Democrats should attempt to choose the electors by the Legislature, the New York Republicans will follow their example and elect $5 electoral vote for the Republican candidate in 1880; and hence the Democrats are casting about for a scheme to carry some Western Republican State, the vote of which, with that of Maine, will counterbalance the electoral vote of New York. Having this plan in view, they have their eye on Senator Davis, whom they regard as a strong man, able to carry his own State. The Democrats can not dispel the fear that General Grant will be the next Republican candidate, and they realize the fact that if he should be nominated, he will be elected. This condition of things gives them no little uneasiness. Confronted by these facts, they see that none of the old party hacks will do for the race of 1880—that neither Hendricks, Seymour, Tilden, and not even Bayard—will meet the emergency. Fernando Wood, one of the old Bourbon wheelhorses, is compelled to admit that none of those men will do, that the party must take up a new man—"some one that the Republicans cannot throw mud at." He has an idea that David Davis will meet the requirements of the hour, and therefore favors his nomination.

The discussion concerning the nomination of Senator Davis by the Democrats, for the Presidency, shows how utterly demoralized is the Democratic party in this country. It has no hope, no leaders and no policy. It has become so obnoxious to the people that it dare not nominate one of its chief representatives. It has lost public confidence to such an extent that it is forced to go outside of the party for a candidate for the Presidency. The leading men of the party, the men who represent its principles, whatever they may be, the men who have labored in season and out of season, from their youth up to old age, for the cause of the Democracy, are the men whom the party has no faith that it can elect.

It is a queer notion that turns their attention to Senator Davis. Until recently, he was a strong Republican, was a Republican all his life, and was a disciple of Abraham Lincoln. He made a moderate Judge while on the Supreme Bench, and makes a worse statesman in the Senate. He does not seem to have any settled policy regarding any public question of importance. He is called an "Independent," but in practice he is a dissembler. More than half the time he is afraid to vote for fear his vote might be on the unpopular side of the question. Whenever he can "dodge" his doubts, and when the names of the Senators are about to be called, he dodges in the cloak room of the Chamber carrying with him the consciousness that he is the Independent Senator and the great Third Party of the United States.

We doubt whether the party will nominate Judge Davis, but should he receive the nomination, there is not a shadow of a chance that he can be elected.

Columbus' Lost Anchor Discovered.
A curious relic of one of the expeditions which sailed to the West Indies under the command of Columbus has, it is stated by a Martinique journal, been recently discovered. On the 4th of August, 1493, a small squadron of three vessels, under the orders of Christopher Columbus, was anchored off Trinidad. Late at night, Columbus, it is stated by Washington Irving, suddenly saw a way of water approaching toward the fleet from the south. His own vessel was lifted up so high by the incoming wave that he feared it would be either submerged or dashed on shore while the cable of one of the other ship, parted under the strain to which it was subjected. The crew of the vessel gave themselves up for lost, but after a time the wave, which it is surmised must have been caused by an exceptionally large body of water coming suddenly down one of the rivers flowing into the gulf of Paria, ebbed back again. This sudden rise of the waters of the gulf is mentioned by Columbus' son Ferdinand, who adds that the fleet suffered damage from the loss of one anchor. It is this anchor which has been found, and strangely enough, it was dug up from a depth of six feet below the surface of the ground, at a spot 372 feet from the nearest point of coast line. The land, it is well known, is gaining upon the sea along the shores of Venezuela, so that where once ships rode at anchor gardens are now planted. The anchor itself is of simple form and comparatively rude manufacture, the stock being eight feet long and round, with a ring at one end one foot in diameter, to which to make fast the cable, and with flukes five feet long, the whole weighing 1,100 pounds.

JUDGE DAVIS AS A PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE.
There has been a little quiet talk during the past few months among a certain class of Democrats regarding the candidacy of David Davis for the Presidency in 1880. It will not be forgotten that occasionally within the past year, the Chicago Times had a good word to say of Davis, and at one time went so far as to say that the Democrats should nominate him, and that if nominated, he would be elected. There were a good many at that time who regarded this mention of the Illinois Senator as a joke, but it seems that the Times did not speak altogether in jest, and that those who several months were pondering on the subject, were in earnest. The Chicago News of Monday, publishes a special from Wash-

SUICIDE IN PRISON.

Special to the Gazette.
WAUKESHA, Dec. 23.—William Andrews, a convict from Racine, who was sent up last June for three years for burglary, committed suicide on Sunday morning. He stabbed himself several times with a fork, and succeeded in cutting the artery in one of his wrists. While bleeding profusely he was found and his wounds promptly dressed, and a guard placed over him. On Sunday morning while the guard was temporarily absent, Andrews hung himself with a sheet which he got off the bed. When the guard returned the unfortunate man was dead. He was buried on Monday in the Potter's field, where many convicts he buried. He was twenty-four years old. He seemed to have been troubled with insanity for about two weeks.

A DEMOCRATIC PLAN.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 23.—The following is one of the plans suggested as a solution of the present situation in Maine by the Democrats who fear the consequences of persisting in the present course. Each branch of the Legislature when organized, and before proceeding to any other business, should pass upon the right of each member whose seat is contested to his place, and determine whether, if any one, is duly elected; that the Democrats who have received certificates, when they are clearly non-contented to them, be voted out by the Democratic majority, and the Republicans who were elected be voted in, and the unelected members who hold certificates should vote in a body against their own rights to the seats. Such is the plan suggested by some of the Democrats who fear the consequences to their party of the revolutionary plan.

WHAT HAYES SAYS.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—It is stated that President Hayes said in conversation a day or two ago that he believed that under the constitution the Vice President of the United States had the right to count and declare the Presidential vote, and whether he counted it and declared it in the rotunda of the Capitol or in the presence of both houses of Congress in joint convention assembled, that he (Hayes) should recognize and enforce it as the true and legal declaration of the count.

THE MAINE INFAMY.
An Address to the People by the Executive Committee.
BANGOR, Dec. 23.—The Executive Committee, appointed by the indignation meeting in this city Saturday evening, has issued an address, urging all good citizens of every city, town, and hamlet in the State to unite with them in taking measures for concerted action to prevent the consummation of the outrage perpetrated upon the rights and liberties of the people and honor and fair name of the State of Maine. "Great evils," says the address, "demanded prompt remedies, and for this the greatest wrong ever committed under a free government, we believe that among the people of Maine there are clean hands to discover, and strong arms to apply means to render it of no avail. For this purpose we ask your advice and assistance, that the honesty, intelligence, and patriotism of our people may be a living force to carry out their will."

THE BURNED BREWERY.
MILWAUKEE, Dec. 23.—The fire at Best's Brewery was confined to the buildings already reported. About 200,000 bushels of grain were in the elevators, all of which will be a total loss.
It is difficult to get correct estimates of the losses sustained. The grain in the elevator is ruined for brewing purposes, that portion not burned being damaged by water, with the promise that the barley may be used for feed. The loss on grain is put at $150,000. The loss on buildings, office furniture, and machinery, at $150,000, making the total $300,000. These are outside figures, given by the proprietor and experts. Insurance men think the loss will not reach $300,000. The insurance ance policies are in the safe, which cannot be opened for a day or two yet, but it is believed the risks aggregate about $500,000. The origin of the fire as yet remains a mystery, and the only reasonable explanation is that it was the result of combustion in the drying kilns situated back of the office.

THE CHICAGO STRIKERS.
CHICAGO, Dec. 23.—The 8,000 striking workmen at the stock yards have largely resumed operations, the packers having acceded to their demand that no men outside the union should be employed. The only firms which still stand out are Armour & Co., Fowler Brothers, Cudahy & Chapin, and the Anglo-American Packing Company. P. D. Armour said to-day that his firm would stand out till doomsday rather than allow their employees to dictate terms. There has been no trouble whatever at the stock yards, and no talk of violence.

KILLED IN THE WOODS.
RACINE, Dec. 23.—This evening Seneca Raymond, proprietor of Congress Hall, received a dispatch from Manistee, Mich., stating that George Kuehler, a resident of this city, and who was porter at the hotel for years, had been instantly killed in that place while walking in the woods, by a tree falling on and crushing him. Kuehler is well known here. Mr. Raymond telegraphed to bury the body at that place.

ELECTRIC LIGHT.
CINCINNATI, Ohio, Dec. 23.—R. J. Edgar and John A. Russell, representing Edison, have been in this city several days to arrange for the introduction of the new electric light. To-day they made a contract with John Shillito and associates, to give them the preference in bidding for the management of the business of lighting Cincinnati, Covington, and Newport as soon as experiments show the invention to be practicable.

ROBBERY OF DIAMONDS.
MILWAUKEE, Dec. 23.—This morning Mrs. Charles Wheeler, was robbed of a set of diamond jewelry, valued at $800, while she was at breakfast at Johnston's Broadway boarding house.

Just Look Here!
Catarrhal
POISON!

Wol De Meyer's Treatise on Catarrh explains the following important facts:
1. That Catarrhal Colds become a constitutional infection, at first local, and finally constitutional.
2. That, being Constitutional, the infection is beyond the reach of mere local remedies.
3. That impurities in the nostrils, are necessarily swallowed into the stomach and inhaled into the lungs, thus poisoning the Digestive, Respiratory and Genito-urinary organs.
4. That Catarrhal virus follows the mucous membrane and causes Bronchitis, Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhoea, Bronchitis, Leucorrhoea, or a Consumption.
5. That smokes, Douches, Inhalations, and Insoluble Salts, cannot possibly remove infectious inflammation from the organs named.
6. That an antidote for Catarrh must possess an innocuous affinity for, and the quality of being absorbed by, the purulent mucus wherever located.

Based upon these plain theories, Dr. Wol De Meyer's Catarrh Cure has proved to be infallible. It not only relieves, it cures Catarrh at any stage. Home testimony:

man must be hanged, but it is quite another thing to hang him.

I come now to another statement of the Gazette, made repeatedly of late, that court records show that in nearly every case in this country in which a criminal has been sentenced to be hanged, the attempt has been made to secure a commutation of the sentence to imprisonment for life. Now, admitting what is here stated, the Gazette unintentionally commits itself to a virtual acknowledgment of the position which opponents of the gallows occupy—namely, the extreme difficulty of enforcing the death punishment. The Gazette gives us here an argument in opposition to a repeal of our present statute. We can readily see secure conviction for the crime of murder as our law stands, and the punishment is very sure to follow the conviction and the sentence. A law that can be enforced is far superior in its preventive effects to one that is constantly evaded, no matter how what cause evasion occurs.

Again, we are told that the gallows is an antidote to mob law. But will the Gazette presume to say that the "outbreaks" to which it refers are unknown in States where the death penalty exists? Are there cases on record, where between the period of conviction and the time for the execution of the sentence, mobs have broken into jails, taken the condemned therefrom and hanged them? I make the assertion, and can prove it, that these outbreaks—these acts of lawless violence, are more frequent where the gallows is than where it is not. Compare Illinois and Michigan with Wisconsin and Michigan, for evidence of the correctness of my statement.

[CONCLUDED TO-MORROW.]

To Young Men.

Young men, if you contemplate business career, you cannot look after your habits too carefully. Your aim in life is to be successful in all undertakings, and you can never be successful with bad habits. Matters which seem of small moment to you now, may become in future the turning-point in your career, either up or down as they may be. Of many a man before you. In illustration of this, we print the following anecdote, as related in one of the most prominent New York dailies:

"Horace B. Claffin, the most prominent and wealthy dry goods merchant of New York, was alone in his office one afternoon.

When a young man, pale and careworn, timidly knocked and entered. Mr. Claffin said he, "I have been unable to meet certain payments because parties failed to do by me as they agreed to do, and I would like to have $10,000. I come to you because you have been a friend to my father, and might be a friend to me."

"Come in," said Claffin. "Come in and have a glass of wine." "No," said the young man. "I don't drink." "Have a cigar,"

then?" "No—I never smoke." "Well,"

said the older man, "I would like to accompany you but I don't think I can." "Very well," said the young man, as he was about to leave the room. "I thought perhaps you might—good day sir." "Hold on," said

Mr. Claffin; "you don't drink?" "No."

"Nor smoke?" "No, nor gamble, nor anything of the kind?" "No sir."

"Well," said Mr. Claffin with tears in his eyes, "you shall have it and three times the amount you wish. Your father let me have $5,000 and asked me the same questions. No thanks—I owe it to you for your father's sake."

BRIEFLETS.

—Nice and cool.
—The days will soon lengthen a little.
—The Northwestern pay car will give the boys a little wealth for Christmas.

—Ald. Barnes appeared in Council meeting last night again, he having been spending some time in the far East.

—The Guards hold a special meeting to-night to decide about going to Madison to participate in the inauguration.

—Miss Florence Kane, daughter of A. L. Kane, of Milwaukee, is visiting the family of S. A. Pond, on East street.

—In the dry goods line Thomas Leech's store should not be passed by. He has an elegant showing of holiday goods. Call and see them.

—Family and pocket bibles, prayer books, albums, velvet case frames, writing desks, other cases, gents' cuff and collar boxes, &c., at Sutherland's bookstore.

—A runaway horse dragged a cutter from the First ward down Milwaukee street, and onto Main at a lively gallop to-day noon. The cutter was badly wrecked.

—To-morrow night is the time set for the Washington Engine Company's party at Cannon's hall. An enjoyable time is promised, and many tickets have already been sold.

—The Board of Education met last evening and decided to open the next term of school Monday January 12. The children should put this down in their new diaries for 1880.

—Ward Williams is back again from Fairbault, Minn., where he has been attending the Military Academy. He will spend his holiday vacation in visiting friends, and will return to his books and drill early next month.

—J. W. Bates surprised his friends by appearing on the streets for a short time to-day. He is by no means rugged though, and after attending to some necessary business hurried home again. His sister, Miss Ida, is still dangerously ill.

—There is to be a merry Christmas musicale and promenade at the Pembor house Thursday evening, commencing at 8:30 o'clock, under the direction of Prof. T. S. Boston. That the occasion will be a happy one none can doubt.

—Now that the busy time is over on the farms, more leisure is found for looking over the plans and figures of the Wisconsin Mutual Protection Association, and as a consequence the number of applicants for membership is on the increase.

—The Mutual Improvement Club last evening opened their session by a conversation on current events. A study of "The Tempest" followed, papers being given by Miss Ida Putnam, Mrs. McHenry, Miss Hatherall, and Miss De Forrest, and a discussion of the merits of the play closed the evening's exercises.

—Next Saturday evening's session of the Round Table is to be devoted to the subject of "Letters and Letter-Writing." Among those who are to participate are Rev. H. Faville, J. C. Metcalf, Rev. T. P. Sawin, Miss Della Dearborn, Miss Bertha Sayles, Rev. T. W. McLean, Prof. J. P. Haire, and Pliny Norcross.

—Alderman Church has an extra smile on this morning. The decision of the City Attorney concerning the Spring Brook bridge has placed him right before his constituents in regard to that long disputed bill for stone used in improvement. Some of his contrer charges that the money had been drawn out of the wrong fund, but the decision last night shows that he was right and they were wrong, and Church is happy.

—The much talked of Clinton case is before Justice Brooks this afternoon. Ira Henry, the accused, put in an appearance in company with his present wife, while his accuser, wife No. 1, appeared with several of her friends. The question involved seems to be whether Henry really did get a legitimate divorce from wife No. 1, as he claims. A number of witnesses from Clinton are in attendance, and the promises to be one of interest.

—John W. McNiece is again in the city after an absence of fifteen years. When he left Janesville he was but a boy, and now he comes back a full whiskered man. During these years he has seen much of life and for ten years or more past has served in the regular army. Many who remember him as a boy would not recognize him in the man of to-day, but as fast as his identity becomes known he is given a cordial greeting. He expects to make this his home town, it business opportunities open up.

THE GOOD SHIP COMING IN.

On Thursday evening the First Congregational church gives its Christmas festival at Cannon's hall, the exercises will begin promptly at 6 o'clock, in order to give the little ones a chance to get home early. There will be music and songs in charge of Miss Battle, Warren Collins and Charles Wingate. The scenic and literary exercises are in the hands of Mrs. J. T. Wright. Some fine charades are in course of preparation. At the conclusion of these exercises the good ship from Fairy Land, Santa Claus, Captain, will sail into port laden with good things for all the little ones. Children who are members of the school admitted free. Others will be charged ten cents.

GAS ABOUT GAS.

The City Fathers Gather to Talk over Municipal Matters—A New Hook and Ladder Truck Ordered.

A regular meeting of the Common Council was held last evening, the Mayor presiding and all the members present except Ald. Joyce and Robinson.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved, and the usual batch of bills read and referred to the several committees.

Ald. Fitzgibbon, of the Gas Committee, reported adversely to the erection of a lamp-post on the corner of Division and South Third streets, because no main had been laid there. This called out considerable discussion, which waxed warm, Alderman Church, Fitzgibbon, and Vankirk taking a part therein. Ald. Church opened on the chairman of the Gas Committee for opposing everything on the East side of the river, and considerable time was spent in exhausting the subject. The report was adopted.

Ald. Vankirk, of the Finance Committee, reported in favor of the payment of sundry bills and accounts.

Ald. Vankirk offered the following resolution and moved its adoption:

Ordered by the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Janesville, That the New Gas Light Company be directed to present its bills against the city, for gas consumed, on the first of every month hereafter, commencing on the first of January, 1880.

The Alderman in presenting the order explained its purposes, and stated that at the beginning of the present fiscal year there was left from the $2,000 fund only $1,216, the rest having been paid out on the gas bills of the previous year. Considerable talk ensued, and when the order was pressed to a vote it was defeated.

Ald. Cox presented an order for the erection of a lamp post on the northeast corner of Division and East Milwaukee streets, in the Second ward. Referred.

The communications were read by the City Clerk, in regard to the purchase of a new hook and ladder truck. One was from the Consolidated Company of Chicago, offering a truck for $750 cash, or for $550 cash and the old truck.

The other was from the Caswell Company of Chicago, and read as follows:

Chicago Dec. 10 1879.

J. M. Burgess, Janesville, Wis.
Dear Sir:—In reply to your favor asking price of a new hook and ladder truck and take your old one in exchange, will say, that about a week ago Mr. Mahon, of your city, called on us to gain information in regard to style, equipments, and construction of our regular trucks, which we gave him cheerfully. He then said some changes would be necessary to adapt the truck to the actual requirements of the city. We herewith attach a full description of a truck as we described it, which is different in many particulars from the one named in our catalogue called "our village truck."

The frame will be 16 feet long, or long enough to carry the ladders which are, one 30 foot extension ladder, one 30 foot single ladder, one 24 foot single ladder, two 14 foot single ladders, and one 12 foot single ladder.

Each ladder runs independent, and on rollers, and is held in place by a patent lever eccentric.

There are also four pike poles, six rubber fire buckets, four brass hand lanterns, one signal lamp, one arch and "name" plate, one 12 inch gong to be struck by the wheel, two fire axes, two fire picks, two steel crowbars, 75 feet pull rope, and reel to wind the same, 75 feet down rope, hook and chain (large), four brass double swing torches placed in a convenient place, to be removed and used in other localities, patent saws, wheel with brass hub bands, polished platform springs in front, Concord axles, all the appliances to be held in place by our improved holders, and the frame to be painted in English vermilion and gold striped; the wheels to be wood finish, and the tires to project one-sixteenth inch over the wood of the wheels to protect them from wear; the whole to be made of the best material and fully warranted in every particular, and placed on board the cars in Chicago for the sum of $405 cash, and the old truck with all its equipments.

The price of our truck as described above is $630 cash, and knowing just what your truck is, having seen it about one year ago, we are willing to allow $185 for it, which we think is a fair price, and all it will bring. Second hand trucks, engines, or cars are always a drug in the market. If you should favor us with the order, we can get it out so as to deliver in about sixty days from date of receiving the order. Hoping to be favored, we remain, Yours,

CASWELL FIRE DEPT. SUPPLY CO., Per Caswell.

On motion of Ald. Croft, the Fire Committee was instructed to procure a truck of the Caswell Company, by paying $405 cash, and turning over the old truck.

For some time there has been a question in the Council concerning Spring Brook bridge. The City Attorney last evening gave it as his opinion that it was city property, and not Third ward property. Adjournment was then taken.

MESSES C. L. BRUNDAKE & SON, Druggists, Milwaukee, Wis., write:—"St. Jacobs Oil has a wonderful sale. We sold eight bottles at retail yesterday. This will give you some idea of how well it is liked in this section."

CHRISTMAS SERVICES AT TRINITY CHURCH.

The children's Christmas festival will be held in the church, at 6:30 o'clock, Christmas eve, Wednesday.

There will be two services on Christmas day, the first at 8 a. m., a celebration of the Holy Communion; the second at 10:30 a. m., with morning prayer and Holy Communion.

The music will be as follows, and will be rendered by a double choir, under Prof. Titcomb's management:

Professional—Shout the Glad Tidings.....Muhlenberg Responses.....Finest Gloria.....Emerson Te Deum.....Emerson Adagio.....Old Hymn 19 o'clock.

Professional Anthem.....Danks Venite.....Emerson Te Deum.....Emerson Jubilate.....Emerson Anthem.....Emerson And the 9 o'clock programme.

MORE ABOUT MOSLEY'S. There is no use in trying to say all that ought to be said about Mosley's holiday display in one issue. There's too much of it, as all will bear witness who have looked over the stock. Today we noticed that the crowd coming and going had worn the door clear off, and if they don't stop, the door itself will go next. Two long counters filled with knick-knacks of every description, simple and elegant, odd and substantial, catch the eye at once, and there's no use trying to see them all unless you have plenty of leisure. Then there are shelves and side counters, and show cases, brimming full of attractions. It's a great show, and people evidently appreciate it, and he is getting his full share of the trade. Nobody should fail to look at the display, for it is worthy of all the good words said about it.

BOUND FOR MADISON.

The Janesville Guards and Bower City Band to Join in the Inauguration Deleings.

Captain H. A. Smith, of the Janesville Guards, and D. D. Bennett, of the Bower City Band, have been in receipt of several letters and telegrams from those in charge of the coming inaugural ceremonies at Madison, urgently inviting the Guards and the Band to join in the doings of that day. They say they "have counted on this company and the band as the chief attraction," and that they must come if possible. The railroad companies have generously offered free transportation and subsistence and quarters are to be furnished them while there. This pressing invitation has been accepted, a telegram having been received to-day, asking for an answer, and to which a favorable reply was made, so that there is now every reason to believe that this city will be represented in Madison on January 5th, the day set for the ceremonies. General Bryant says in a private letter that "if the weather permit the display will be very creditable to our National Guard," and the residents of this city may well rejoice that they can send thither such bodies of men, as will form not the least attractive feature of this display. They have been away from home before, and always won honors, and that they will do so at Madison, there is no doubt.

ASSAULT AND ROBBERY.
Last evening there was a row on East Milwaukee street, in which Robert Synott claims that Dave Patterson was the first to assault him, and several others were mixed up. When Synott got on his feet again he found that some one had robbed him of his gold watch and chain. Patterson was locked up charged with assault, and warrants are issued for others for stealing the watch.

GIVING THE CONTRACT.
This morning the County Clerk, Sylvester Morgan, opened the bids for printing 3,000 pamphlets containing the proceedings of the County Board of Supervisors for 1879. There were three bids, one from the Beloit Free Press, one from the Recorder, and one from the Gazette. An examination showed that the Gazette Publishing Company was the lowest, and to them was given the contract.

HOW TO GET A CHROMO.
The meanest man we have seen, since we last looked in the glass, is the fellow who walked into King's bookstore this morning, and with a look of borrowed innocence asked "Wall" when he was going to get in his Christmas goods. The idea that a man in his sober senses could stand in the midst of that glittering display and ask such a question, was almost too much for even King's good nature to stand up under, and had it not been that "Wall" had a chapped finger, that fellow would have had to ask his next question in a warmer world than this. No wonder that fellow smiled and hurried out. Why, his store is packed jammed full of the latest and the best of everything, and embracing a variety which is bewildering.

So many novelties to look at, such an assortment to select from, and such prices, way down so low that a three-year-old child can reach up to them. King has a right to climb up on the end of the counter, and crow over his success, and if there was room, he might do so, but every available square foot is used for goods. Now if you don't believe all this, you can slip into King's while waiting for the mail, or any other time, and ask him all about it, and if it isn't so, tell him to give us a chromo and charge it to you.

JANESVILLE, OHIO, Sept. 10, 1878.
Messrs. MORGAN & ALLEN, 59 John Street, New York City:

Dear Sir:—I am pleased to inform you that father is almost as well as he ever was. His appetite is improving daily; he does not have to get up during the night, whereas he used to get up every half hour. He remarked at the supper-table this evening that he felt so well—better than he had for several years. The quantity of urine now passed in the twenty-four hours does not exceed one quart—the proper quantity—quite a drop from 3 1/2 gallons. Will you say to him, let him eat anything, and if any return of the disease you will hear from me.

Yours very truly,
JNO. L. SMITH.
JANESVILLE, Nov. 7, 1878.

Messrs. MORGAN & ALLEN, 59 John St., New York City.
Dear Sir:—It has been some time since I wrote you in regard to how father was getting along. So I thought I would write you to-day. I am happy to say that he is entirely well, has been cured with less than three bottles of Constitution Water. Since he has been taking the Constitution Water, we have heard of a good many cases of diabetes in this city. One lady especially has it very bad. When we first heard of her she was down in bed with it. She bought one bottle of Constitution Water, and after taking a few doses, was able to get up. She said as many circulations as you can for a chronic disease. There are a great many persons that want them.

Yours very truly,
JNO. L. SMITH.
Ask your druggist for it.
